ONLINE SAFETY

Choose a safe username that doesn't include any personal information, like your real name, and use an avatar for your profile picture rather than a picture of you.

The game may allow you to talk to strangers, so be careful about sharing any personal details.

It's safest to play games with friends you know in real life.

If someone you don't know asks you to join them on another game, app or website, don't reply and tell an adult you trust.

If someone is being mean, block them and tell an adult you trust. You can also report them. Ask an adult for help with this.

games rating authority